

CAUTIONARY MESSAGE

Botswana Qualifications Authority advises school leavers and the general public who may have an interest in any learning programme to carefully select and ensure that they enroll with registered and accredited Education and Training Providers (ETPs) and for learning programmes that are registered, approved or accredited by BQA. These includes both Public and Private Education and Training Providers.

Sponsors and employers are advised to only sponsor at ETPs and for learning programmes that are registered, approved or accredited by BQA. These includes short and long term courses.

Please also note that international Education and Training Providers who wish to offer training services in Botswana are required by Law to register and accredit with BQA, irrespective of being registered, recognised or accredited in their countries of origin.

The lists of registered and accredited ETPs and their registered, approved or accredited learning programmes are available on the BQA website .
