RECALL OF SOME EVALUATION OF QUALIFICATIONS REPORTS

Botswana Qualifications Authority informs its stakeholders that Mr Sandile Mguni who worked as Evaluation of Qualifications Officer is no longer an employee of the Authority.

The Authority:

- advises all customers to cease doing business with the afore-mentioned with immediate effect.
- recalls all Evaluation of Qualifications (EQ) Reports signed and issued by Mr Mguni forthwith. Customers are advised to return all Reports signed by Mr Mguni to BQA for re-evaluation of their qualifications.
- advises EQ Reports users, for example, professional bodies and employers to confirm the authenticity of these EQ Reports with BQA before making registration, employment and other decisions on the basis of the reports.

BQA assures stakeholders that Evaluation of Qualifications is done according to set international standards and that a decision has been taken to issue Reports on secure paper effective 1st November 2017.

Any inconvenience caused is regretted.
